

COUNTRY CORRESPONDENCE

ITEMS FROM MEAD

Fire destroyed the home of Dr. and Mrs. Jackman Monday. The family have the sympathy of the entire community.

Mr. and Mrs. Cobb visited friends in Silo Sunday.

Cecil Horton returned to Oklahoma City Sunday.

Carrie and Lola Shannon visited friends in Durant Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dial Currin of Durant visited Mr. and Mrs. Templeton Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell are the proud parents of a 14 pound baby boy.

Leonard Bayes of Durant visited here Sunday.

Mr. Pittman died at his home here Monday night after a few months illness. He is survived by a wife and five children, who have the sympathy of the entire community.

ITEMS FROM CALERA

Rev. John Boyett filled his regular appointment at the First Baptist church Saturday and Sunday.

Cottage prayer meeting met with Mrs. Belle Baldwin, Tuesday evening and will meet with Mrs. M. Rolater next Tuesday. Every one invited.

Rev. F. B. Rickerson will move with his family to Bennington Friday.

Mrs. J. R. Keller was in Durant Wednesday.

We had a good old fashioned picnic Saturday. Every one seemed to enjoy it so much. There was a large crowd with plenty to eat. It was given in honor of the farmers' union.

Mrs. Sam Sims of Colbert visited home folks attended the picnic.

Mrs. Mina Malcolm and little daughter Lillian visited in Calera Wednesday.

Mrs. F. B. Rickerson and little Mary attended the Baptist Association in Durant Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Johnson and son Charles and Mrs. Harry Guion attended the Baptist Association in Durant Wednesday.

Mrs. Lena Spradlin of Durant visited home folks Tuesday.

Tiny England of Durant spent the weekend with Marvin Colbert.

Mrs. D. C. Adamson and children returned from Oklahoma City Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mapp of near Achille were among the many who attended the Farmers' Union Picnic Saturday.

FROM DOWING CHAPEL

Making molasses is the order of the day. We are still having lots of hot dry weather, a nice rain would be greatly appreciated as it is getting so dry and dusty.

Chas Daniel is on the sick list this week.

R. W. Dunlap of Hicks community assisted Rev. Hinkles with his meeting. After considering it more convenient the baptizing took place at Holder, 2:30 Sunday afternoon instead of the place mentioned in last week's write up.

Several from here went to Burk-holt Sunday to attend the baptizing there. It has been reported that they have been having grand revivals there, 54 having been received for baptism and several conversions.

Ruby L. Daniel was the guest of Vada Jackson of Holder Saturday night.

Eugene Hockett moved to Boggie Wednesday and his father moved to the place which he vacated.

Mrs. Morris visited her son at Boggie last week.

John Doral of Alabama is visiting friends here.

Nellie Gordon has returned to Nails Crossing after a visit to her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Gordon.

J. C. Daniel was attending business in Caddo Saturday.

Howard Tate was a Caney visitor Saturday.

Mrs. Lon Taylor who has been visiting her daughter of Stone Bluff, returned Friday. Her daughter returned with her and will visit here for a while.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Combs were up from Caddo Hills Sunday.

Alma Tipton, operator of the Telephone Co. of Durant is spending her vacation with her sister Mrs. C. J. Ray.

Nancy Austin of near Liberty attended church at this place Saturday night.

Roy W. Hogue, who has been real sick has greatly improved.

Mrs. Vester and May Burrow of Rock Springs, visited Mr. and Mrs. Newt Daniel Wednesday.

Mrs. Hattie Roland is on the sick list at this writing.

Maudie Van Cleave spent Sunday with Miss Annie Green of near Holder.

Rev. Hinkles closed his meeting at the Chapel Sunday night, there being only one soul saved and united with the Methodist church.

There will be a protracted meeting begin at Holder Tuesday night. Every one is cordially invited to come and take a part in this noble work.

J. Z. Williams will leave Tuesday for western Oklahoma.

There will be Sunday school every Sunday at 10:30; also prayer meeting on Sunday night at the Chapel.

NEW CHURCH ITEMS

There was quite a large crowd attended church here Sunday night.

Quite a number of Fulsom Grove folks attended church here Sunday night.

There was prayer meeting Wednesday night.

Jimmie and Eunice Harris and Jessie Ladd, Lillian Bryant attended church at Cobb Monday night with Ike Hitchcock, Russell Harris and Julius Harris.

The revival meeting began Saturday night here.

Garl Calvin and Dora Neely of Veatch Grove were at church Saturday night.

Sunday School has been changed from afternoon at 3 o'clock to morning at 10 o'clock.

Alta Ladd spent Saturday night with Susie Rodecker.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Nicholson and little daughter spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. P. N. Harris.

Mrs. May Roach and baby spent Sunday with Miss Jimmie Harris.

Mr. Burr and daughter Eula attended services Sunday and Sunday night here.

Mr. and Mrs. Tex James of Fulsom Grove were here Sunday night.

Audrey Parrin attended church here Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. Morgan and daughter Zora, of Cox's Chapel.

ITEMS FROM WASEETA

Too late for last week

The farmers of this community are very busy this week baling hay.

Sam Hale of Dallas is on an extended visit with his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Nute Cato.

Lillie and Minnie Lindsey was in Caddo Saturday shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Nute Cato took a wagon load of young folks to this community to Blue Sunday. They took lunch together and went in bathing. Every one reported a wonderful time.

The party Friday night at Mr. Weber's was greatly enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Lindsey and family spent the day Sunday with Walter Lindsey and family of Freeny Chapel community.

Maxie Valentine and Dewey Arr of Correnth community spent Saturday night with Sam Hale.

John Gooch and family attended church at Caddo Sunday night.

Lucile Downing was in Caddo Saturday shopping.

Opal Cato and little sister Fay was in Caddo Tuesday shopping.

Grady Hefner was in Durant Friday on business.

The dance at Mr. Gooch's Tuesday night was well attended.

Clyde Hefner was in Durant Monday morning on business.

ITEMS FROM VEACH GROVE

Mr. and Mrs. Okland Morton left for their home in Checotah this morning in their new automobile.

They have been visiting G. W. Seely and other relatives for two weeks. They spent a week at Sulphur. Roy Seely was with them.

Health of the neighborhood is good, excepting a few kicking chills.

A large crowd attended the meeting Tuesday night. On account of not enough room, arrangements have been made to move outside on the campus. We had a fine sermon.

A truck load of young people came out to the meeting Tuesday night. Come again we appreciate your presence and help.

Prof. Hotchkins and family attended the meeting Tuesday. We all love to have him and his family in our midst.

Rev. Greig and Rev. Clarey of Durant took supper with Mr. and Mrs. Chas Templeton Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sprague of Wade are the guests of G. W. Seely for the week. They are receiving congratulations this week.

Marvin Bloodworth is on the sick list this week. He was just recovering from an attack of malaria fever, when suddenly he had hemorrhage of the lungs.

The crowd and interest at the nightly meeting is growing every day. Splendid order is prevailing. The singing by the young ladies from East Side, Durant and from the First Presbyterian Church of Durant has been enjoyed by all. Come again.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Ferguson leave today (Saturday) for Denison, Texas to visit relatives.

Mrs. Stanley Veatch spent the day with her sister, Mrs. Roy Dobbs of Durant.

Willie Mae Midkiff of Cox's Chapel and her friend Chas. Betts of Atoka attended the meeting last night.

Herbert O'Dell who has been visiting relatives and friends at Celina, Texas has returned home.

Rev. D. B. Gregory and Rev. Moseley attended the revival here Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. James Floyd and son of Armstrong visited the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Chas Templeton.

FROM CARROLL'S CHAPEL

Too late for last week

Sunday school was well attended here Sunday.

C. W. Shaw and family were at the Free Will Baptist church at Flemsen Sunday night.

The boll weevils are still working on the cotton crops for the people.

Mrs. J. H. Miller is very sick at present.

George Knight has been visiting here from Madill.

Ezzie Lassiter of Franklin visited Ruth Freeman Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. Martha Eslick and family visited relatives at Twelve-Mile Prairie Friday and Saturday.

The ice cream supper was well attended at D. O. Freeman's Saturday night.

ITEMS FROM CADDO

Bessie Markham is home from a visit with her sister at Ardmore.

Mrs. Laura Carroll visited in Durant Monday.

Mrs. Lee Hancock visited in Durant Tuesday.

Sunday evening when Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bass and Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Caraway were returning from a trip to Blue their car turned over as they were making a sharp turn the car was destroyed by fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Jowell are here from Oklahoma City visiting relatives.

Morris Overstreet was up from Durant Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Evans and little son of Atoka are the guests of Mrs. H. T. Styron.

Geneva Payne of Ada is the guest of Janice Crockett.

E. F. Lafferty died after an illness of several weeks.

Friday afternoon, the little fellows of the primary department of the Methodist Sunday school enjoyed a picnic on Blue.

Bonnie Dale returned Tuesday from a visit to Dustin, Oklahoma.

The Ladies' Aid entertained their husbands with a supper on Blue Thursday afternoon.

ITEMS FROM FRENEY CHAPEL

Men around here are breaking their stubble. Some are almost done while others are just getting started.

Every one seems very busy baling hay as you can see several presses to sight at present. (Monday).

It has been threatening rain here this week.

Our meeting is still in progress. We have splendid crowds and good preaching.

Bro. Joe Wood came very near dying last week as it was stated in last week's paper he was very sick. His heart seems to be bothering him.

Rev. Silina of Atoka came down with Rev. Smith to help hold the meeting, but got sick and had to go home. We are hoping he and Rev. Wood both are restored to their health and can be in the meeting with Rev. Smith.

Mrs. Reeves of Arizona has returned home after a 3 months visit with relatives and friends. Mrs. Reeves' mother-in-law returned home with her to visit her son for a little while, probably a month or so.

Most every one of the youngsters of Correnth community have been regular attendants at the meeting this and last week.

Floyd Ray Wright spent last Wednesday night with his grand father, of Correnth community, Mr. Reeves.

Several from here have been going to Nix to the services at night.

Sol Ingram is talking of going west to see if he can find any place out there that he might take his family this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Lon Moran have been visiting relatives in McKinney, Texas last week.

The meeting is still in progress today (Monday). We are hoping for a large crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ingram of near Caney visited Mr. and Mrs. Sol Ingram Saturday night.

ITEMS FROM MATOY

Still having plenty of boll weevils chills and dry weather.

There was a mistake about the baptizing meeting beginning here last Friday night. It is to be this Friday or Saturday night.

Mr. Prinett and family and Mrs. Lawson and two little girls visited at Lane, Okla., last week.

Little Miss Maggie Clark of Roswell spent last week here with cousin Viola Gray.

Mrs. Wesley Sealf is staying at her mother's.

Uncle Joe Dalman died at the hospital at Durant Thursday and was brought back to Matoy Friday and buried. Rev. E. Hotchkins conducted the funeral services. Uncle Joe was a member of the church for a number of years. He was 74 years 7 months and 25 days old, having spent most of his life in this part of the county. He has been making his home with his nephew, Stanley Thomas for the past two years.

Mrs. Dora Hull spent part of last week with her sister, Mrs. Butler at Timber Hill.

Several from here attended the big meeting at Cade Sunday night.

We had a good singing at the church Sunday afternoon.

Misses Powell and Virginia Clark of Boswell were guests of R. E. Gray's family Sunday night.

Mrs. Ollie Duty went to Boswell Sunday.

Sam Tigert, J. D. Nickles, L. P. Tidwell, L. C. Yeats, G. N. Harkey and Mr. Pittett were Bennington visitors Saturday.

Arthur Hicks went to Wilburton Saturday to play ball with Atoka's team. He is catcher for Atoka.

Mrs. Pauline Gray and Mrs. Mayfield and family visited across Boggy Saturday and Sunday. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stringer.

Mrs. Marshall who has been in the hospital at Durant, has returned home looking fine and says she feels better than she has for a long time.

T. H. Benton and family visited at Caddo Hills Sunday.

ITEMS FROM PRITCHARD

The boll worms and weevils are still working on the cotton, don't think there will be much made.

There seems to be quite a bit of syrup made in this community.

J. A. Browning and family returned home Sunday, after spending a week with relatives in Hillsboro, Texas.

Jennie V. Marshall left Sunday for her home in Durant, after spending a week with Neoma Pearce.

J. W. Evans left Saturday for Hugo to look out for a new location.

Mrs. Will Stapleton spent Monday with her mother, Mrs. Webber near Caddo.

J. L. Meadows made a business trip to Bockhito Saturday.

Rodger Shepherd from Kemp is visiting T. D. Pearce and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Walker visited her father, Lewis Larmon near Buffalo Sunday.

Prayer meeting every Thursday night. Everybody is welcome to attend.

ITEMS FROM BENNINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Smith spent Sunday in Caddo the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Billie T. Smith, whose son, Mr. Claud Smith has just returned from Arizona where he went about a year ago to recuperate after an attack of flu.

Ben McPherson is leaving this week for Old Goodland where he has accepted a position in the culinary department. He will move his family there soon.

Mrs. Bice is quite sick at the home of her sister, Mrs. Joe Lloyd.

Gladys Gardner of Bockhito visited Deloras York last week-end.

The Methodist meeting began Monday night with Rev. Ryan of Broken Bow in charge. It is being held under a tabernacle in front of the church and the large congregation the first night heard an excellent sermon.

Our first bale of cotton was on the streets last week. Mr. Morgan who lives just outside of town was the owner. A premium of $16 was given him.

ITEMS FROM LONE OAK

Farm work seems to be at a standstill, except for syrup making.

J. A. Campbell, G. E. Lingo, M. F. Breshear and Eli Campbell made a business trip to west Texas in a car. Sunday school was well attended Sunday. Every body is invited to come.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Wylie and Otto spent Saturday and Sunday with their sick brother Worlie Wylie of High View. He has greatly improved.

Mr. Nail has rented thirty acres of land to Mr. Cooper of Durant. He is having it fenced for a hog pasture.

Lone Oak school has the largest attendance this summer it has ever had during the summer school.

ITEMS FROM BLAIR

Nellie Howard who has been ill is rapidly improving.

A large crowd was at the funeral of Manual Ray Monday evening, was shot in Bockhito Saturday evening and died Sunday evening.

Kelly Brady, the son of J. Brady of Blue, was found on a railroad north of Hugo last week, with his skull crushed. We have heard how he is getting along.

Elma Howard, the daughter of and Mrs. J. H. Howard is on a sick list this week.

A brother of Mr. McCullum is visiting here this week.

50 good cigarettes for 10c from one sack of

GENUINE

"BULL"

DURHAM

TO ACCO

The American Cigarette Co.

THE ADVANTAGE IN SELLING QUALITY MERCHANDISE

Every lady is satisfied—no kicks. The only comeback is for more merchandise. WHEN IN THE MARKET—examine our qualities in every line of Wearing Apparel which is being placed on display daily at this Store, and we have broken ourselves in a continuous effort to supply our trade with quality merchandise at prices you will be able to pay. We however, are still open and ready to serve you with the best values and prices obtainable.

Some Wonderful Values in New Crepe and Wool Dresses

wide Main Silk makes an unusually smart trimming when used as collar, cuffs and sash on Navy Poirer Twill with ruffled skirt. Three tiny pink roses at the waist add a finishing touch.

Prices are very reasonable

Other smart, chick Models unusually attractive, tailored from the best quality of Tricotine and Poirer Twill—some with pockets and cuffs set off with multi-colored Silks in charming combinations. Other Models handsomely Silk embroidered and set off with colors of embroidered Net and Valenciennes Lace.

Priced at $24.75 to $44.50.

ALL SUMMER DRESSES HAVE BEEN REDUCED TO PRICES THAT REALLY SELL THEM

These wonderful Organdy and Voile Dresses which we have been selling at $15.00 to $19.50, now selling at only $5.95

Piece Goods Specials

You will find here a wonderful quality Polkadot Percale at only, per yard 10c
Good yard wide Domestic, at only 10c
Best quality Stohli, Messaline and Taffeta, in solid staple colors, our entire stock is offered now, per yard, at only $1.98 and $1.69
Your attention is especially directed to this counter of fine Organdies and Voiles in colors to please, and while it lasts you can buy a dress pattern from a dozen or more different designs at even less than one-half price.

IT WILL PAY YOU TO GET OUR PRICES BEFORE YOU SPEND ANY CASH

About Three Dozen School Dresses, Sizes to 14—Priced only $2.98.

Jenkins Dry Goods Co.
THE STORE FOR ALL THE PEOPLE
DURANT, OKLA.

Four Dozen Boy's School Suits, Priced at only $3.45.